

Each unit is based on an aspect of daily life such as Education, Health, and Driving etc. Students practise grammar, reading, listening and writing. A tutor phones once a week, and there are regular homework assignments.

Course Outline:

Unit 1 - Introduction to NZ

Unit 2 - Families

Unit 3 - Shopping

Unit 4 - Education

Unit 5 - Driving

Unit 6 - Health

Unit 7 - Housing

Unit 8 - Recreation

Unit 9 - Employment

Unit 10 - Industry

Unit 11 - History

Unit One: Introduction to New Zealand - Lesson breakdown
Title:	Unit One - Lesson 1: Meet My Family
Topic:	Meeting a New Zealand family. Find out about Karen's family, where they live and what they like to do.
Skills:	Listening, Grammar - present simple, Vocabulary.
Title:	Unit One - Lesson 2: Leave a message
Topic:	Answer phone messages and organising to meet people. Practise accepting & organising invitations.
Skills:	Listening, Listening, Vocabulary - Greeting someone, invitations and saying goodbye, Grammar - present simple Writing - responding to an invitation.
Title:	Unit One - Lesson 3: Meeting and Greeting
Topic:	These exercises look at meeting people in New Zealand. In this lesson you will practise describing a meeting and listen and read about the ways people greet each other and how they introduce themselves.

Skills:	Reading comprehension, Grammar - tag questions, Writing, Listening - multiple choice, Vocabulary - greetings both formal and informal.
Title:	Unit One - Lesson 4: A day in the life
Topic:	Listen and read about a family in New Zealand. Meet the Kerry Changs and find out about their daily lives.
Skills:	Reading comprehension, Grammar - question forms, Writing - describing your family, Listening.
Title:	Unit One - Lesson 5: New Zealand Places
Topic:	Find out a little about New Zealand geography. Read an article, follow a map and listen to a quiz show.
Skills:	Listening, Reading comprehension, Grammar - comparative and superlative adjectives.
Title:	Unit One - Lesson 6: Four Seasons in One Day
Topic:	Listen to a weather forecast, read about the weather in New Zealand and practise using weather words.
Skills:	Listening, Reading comprehension, Grammar - adverbs of frequency and adjectives.
Title:	Unit One - Pronunciation practice
Topic:	Pronunciation - stress and intonation Your personal tutor will phone you and ask you questions. You will ask the tutor the questions you have practised from this lesson.
Skills:	Listening and speaking
Title:	The verb to be (Self Directed Study) Existing Selfaccess / English-to-go.com material
Topic:	Anna Grammar - Revision of the verb - to be
Skills:	Grammar
Title:	Running Over with Happiness (Self Directed Study) Existing Selfaccess / English-to-go.com material
Topic:	Present simple - positive and negative forms. - There are 2 exercises for you to do.
Skills:	Grammar - present simple.
Title:	Introductions (Self Directed Study) Existing Selfaccess / English-to-go.com material
Topic:	Anna grammar - meeting people Introductions - meeting and greeting
Skills:	Vocabulary - questions and answers